

SPONSORS' SEMINAR

A Commissioner's view on the Australian Fair Pay Commission's First Determination

The Centre for Employment and Labour Relations Law and the Economic Society of Australia, Victorian Branch, are pleased to invite you to this seminar, and delighted to announce that our guest speaker will be:

Professor Judith Sloan

Professor Sloan is an inaugural member of the Australian Fair Pay Commission, and is also a part-time Commissioner of the Productivity Commission. She has been a member of a number of other national statutory authorities, and has held academic appointments at Flinders University and at The University of Melbourne.

We hope you will be able to join us to hear from Professor Sloan on issues including the scope of the AFPC's recent minimum wage decision; how the AFPC reached its decision; how the AFPC expects that its method will affect the real wages of those covered by its rulings over time; and the AFPC's approach to and understanding of the relationship between minimum wages and levels of employment.
