

'Fair Work: The New Workplace Laws and the Work Choices Legacy'

Edited by Anthony Forsyth and Andrew Stewart

You are invited to attend a Book Launch and Panel Discussion to celebrate the publication of
'Fair Work: The New
Workplace Laws and the Work Choices Legacy'
Federation Press, 2009.

The book is a wide ranging, authoritative and accessible analysis of the profound changes to labour regulation under the Howard and Rudd Governments. The authors, leading scholars and practitioners, examine both the nature and legacy of the controversial Work Choices reforms and how workplace relations are set to change under the new Fair Work legislation.

The book will be launched by Commissioner Greg Smith AM (Australian Industrial Relations Commission), to be followed by a panel presentation and an opportunity for questions from the audience. This is an excellent opportunity to hear some of the country's leading experts talk about the Fair Work legislation and the Government's ongoing workplace reform agenda.

The panellists will include:

- Anthony Forsyth, Associate Professor at the Faculty of Business Law and Taxation at Monash University and Director of the Workplace and Corporate Law Research Group;
- Andrew Stewart, John Bray Professor of Law at the University of Adelaide and a consultant to the national law firm Piper Alderman;
- Chris Platt, Director of Workplace Policy, Australian Mines and Metals Association; and
- Cath Bowtell, Senior Industrial Officer, Australian Council of Trade Unions.

Associate Professor John Howe, Director of the Centre for Employment and Labour Relations Law at the Melbourne Law School, will chair the event.
